EASTERN STATES

Railroad Party

ST. LOUIS, April [illegible] — [illegible] Frontier [illegible] [illegible] President of the Atlantic [illegible] Pacific Railroad [illegible] representatives of the City [illegible] Merchants Exchange, Board of Trade and other [illegible] and stockholders of the above named roads left here to-day for San Francisco, where a conference is to be held relative to propositions which have been made in California with a view to hastening the completion of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad across the continent. Several ladies and representatives of the city press accompany the party.

Pennsylvania News

[illegible], April 21.—A fire at Chambersburg last night destroyed ten stores and shops and two hotels.

Peter Weiss was arrested here to-day for the murder of his wife. The woman was found a week since with her throat cut, speechless but not dead. She first wrote the name of her husband as having done it, then that she did it herself. She persisted in removing her bandages and bled to death. She now, it is believed, made this second attempt for fear of her husband.

Woman Suffragists in Convention

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—The State Woman's Suffrage Association held its annual meeting yesterday and elected officers for the ensuing year.

An Absconder Arrested

William Huidel, a banker of Girard, Illinois, who is alleged to have absconded last September with $17,000 belonging to depositors, was brought back yesterday from California by Deputy sheriff Cooke of San Diego county, Cal.

New York News.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The jury in the case of Fanny Hyde, on trial at Brooklyn for the murder of George Watson, have been discharged, being unable to agree. Ten were for acquittal and two for a verdict of manslaughter in the fourth degree.

London papers announce death of Bob Brettle, the pugilist, on the 10th inst.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The House acted on all general appropriation bills except the fortification and sundry civil expenses bills.

It is probable that a resolution will be introduced in the House to-morrow fixing the 24th of May for the final adjournment. It is stated that nineteen Democrats promised to vote with the Republicans who favor the resolution.

The Congressional Committee on pensions consider that it will destroy the system of frauds on the pension office and bring all participants to punishment by publishing in each county a full list of pensioners resident therein. It is estimated that one fourth of the pension claims are fraudulent.

The American and British Commission adjourns this week until the latter part of June.

Guerney returns to England, where he is expected to remain till September.

There is no prospect of Congress at the present session acting upon the admission of Utah into the Union.

MEXICO.

Regulars Revolt

MATAMORAS, April 21.—Nine hundred Mexican cavalry stationed at Cortinas headquarters revolted yesterday and attempted to kill Cortinas, who was rescued by [illegible]. Seventy of the cavalry escaped [illegible]

A squadron consisting of seven vessels [illegible] arrived at Marseilles.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The London Telegraph of the 11th gives a report said to be reliable, that many Alsatians on military duty voluntarily enlisted in a German Lancers regiment stationed at Strasburg.

From Madrid

MADRID, April 21.—Newspaper organs of the Carlist party publish the manifesto of Don Carlos protesting against the late elections, signed by his Secretary and countersigned by Nocedal, and declare that henceforth Carlos and his followers will protest only in the field.

A Revolution Expected.

MADRID, April 21.—A general uprising of Carlists in all parts of Spain is momentarily expected. Troops are prepared to meet it. Railway companies have been ordered to hold all their rolling stock in readiness for the service of the Government. Volunteers in Madrid and elsewhere proffer their services to the Government. The Council of Ministers was in session all last night. The Imparcial is assured that the King's speech to-morrow will contain the following declaration: "I will not impose myself on the country except as a representative of and supported by the majority, but if some turbulent minority seeks to impose its will on the nation, I know my duty and will fulfill it."

STATISTICAL

The silver production in Nevada for 1871 foots up $22,000,000, of which the Comstock Mine furnishes $11,000,000, the Pioche $4,000,000, and the [illegible] $2,000,000.

The Sacramento [illegible] figures up the crop of wheat the coming harvest at [illegible] bushels. Friedlander estimates [illegible] for export, requiring [illegible] ships of [illegible] tons burden each to carry it away.

In 1870 the four great cereal counties of the San Joaquin produced in numbers [illegible] bushels of barley. If they only [illegible] will this year [illegible] the barley crop of the State will be [illegible] bushels.

The population of [illegible] assessed value of real estate is $341,000 [illegible] which is estimated to be about one third its true value. Its imports in 1871 were [illegible] and its exports $4,000 [illegible] of which over 17,000 [illegible] consisted of silver.

EASTERN STATES

Ohio News

[illegible], April [illegible] — [illegible] Harrison, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of this State and Commissioner of [illegible] Telegraph, died at his residence here this morning.

The Liberal Republican Movement

NEW YORK, April 22.—A Herald special says that the Liberal Republicans of Virginia have called a meeting on Wednesday to appoint delegates to Cincinnati. It is understood that the delegation will favor Judge Davis for President and Governor Wilmer for Vice President.

The fact is apparent that the Democratic leaders of New York desire the nomination of Judge Davis at Cincinnati, since they regard him as an untried man and pliable.

Ben Wood's paper says Davis must be nominated if the Liberal Republicans expect Democratic support.

Among certain active politicians the hope is generally expressed that Charles Francis Adams will be nominated.

The World assumes editorially to be friendly to Adams, but daily prints long labored communications criticising Adams' treatment of Fenian affairs while on a visit to England.

The Sun has spoken favorably of a ticket composed of Adams and Groesbeck.

The Tribune thus far has suggested no names.

From Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 22.—A Washington dispatch says that Attorney General Williams starts to-night for Oregon to participate in the campaign.

The same dispatch says that an effort is making to secure Senator Scott of Pennsylvania for Vice President at Philadelphia.

A Mother Murdered by Her Son.

ALBANY, April 22.—At Greenbush, last night, Mrs. Maker, interfering in a fight between her two sons, was struck by one, breaking her neck.

Alabama Claims Again

NEW YORK, April 22.—A Washington special says that the American counter case presented at Geneva will be presented to Congress to-day. The question of consequential damages stands as before as far as our Government is concerned, and it is the opinion of General Banks that the demand should be sustained in the House by more than a two thirds vote.

NOVA SCOTIA

HALIFAX, April 22.—The steamer [illegible] has been hauled into the docks and is discharging. The pilot who is responsible for a nearly disastrous occurrence on Saturday has fled, and has not been seen since.

SOUTH AMERICA

LONDON, April 22.—Rio Janeiro advices of the 2d announce the arrival of the Emperor, Empress and Duke Saxe on the morning of March 31st, amid general rejoicings.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—The stock excitement seems to have broken out afresh, and those who have watched the market think this will be the liveliest week yet. There is hardly anything else talked of or thought of.

The United States steamer Shubrick arrived this morning from Point Conception and way stations.

Nothing yet of the steamer Clan, now overdue from Panama.

Weather warm and fine.

The report that there had been an immense [illegible] perfect [illegible] lower than they opened.

The French [illegible] Committee of the Board [illegible] examining [illegible] on the [illegible]

The [illegible] to seen the preliminary arrangements for a Bar Association.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Various stone implements supposed to have been made by men inhabiting the earth at a date anterior to that ascribed to the creation by Moses, have been found in San Mateo county, and brought to this city. The place where they were found is not divulged, the owner of the ground not desiring a rush of relic hunters.

Several large wool operators have arrived here within the last few days from the East.

There is now for the first time demand in San Francisco for old woolen rags for shipment East for the manufacture of shoddy, the high price of wool stimulating the practice of adulteration with material in cloth manufacture.

The following companies incorporated: Felipe Winter and Hale Gold Hill Consolidated Mining Company—capital, $2,000,000—Gold Hill District, Nevada. Picton Mining Company, $1,000,000—same District. Stanford Silver Mining Company to work the Bowan and Corning Mines, $3,000,000. Occidental Mining Company—$4,000,000—Star District, Nevada. Certificates of increased capital, Hale & Norcross, from $1,500,000 or 800 shares of $200 each to $3,200,000 in 1,600 shares of $200 was filed to-day.

In the Board this morning the calling stopped long before even the Washoe list was reached, but 9 [illegible] shares were sold. This afternoon calling commenced at seven. Baltimore American and several other new stocks have been added to the list.

[illegible] Seeton, who shot his foot off at Alameda on Sunday week, is reported in a critical condition, and a consultation of surgeons was held to-day.

A Chinaman fell under the Folsom street cars yesterday and had his head laid open—head crushed, but not killed outright. No ordinance.

Weather fine and warm.

The stock excitement seems to have broken out afresh, and those who have watched the market think this will be the liveliest week yet. Hardly anything else is talked of.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Only a part of the entire stock list was called this afternoon, but the sales reached 21,6[illegible] shares, making a total for the day of [illegible] 911.

The Panama steamer not yet telegraphed.

The Kimball Car Company has received an order for fifty one horse cars for Woodward's line. They have no platforms for loafers and are run without conductors. Woodward is determined to keep down the price of street car fares in the city and is resorting to every new improvement to enable him to reduce expenses and carry on the war to the end.

This is decidedly the finest night of the season and the day has been glorious.

Several parties are preparing to resume work on the old copper mines on Williams Fork of the Colorado river, the price of copper having doubled since work was stopped in that vicinity. For the past two years the shipments of copper ore from this port have almost wholly ceased, as they did not pay the cost of freight.

A little girl, the daughter of Simon Kahn, residing at No. [illegible] Harrison avenue, was run over by a team this morning at the corner of Seventh and Minna streets, and so injured that she died in a short time.

A runaway with a very liberal valuation [illegible] running away on Market street this afternoon caused five other runaways and the smashing of that number of carriages [illegible]

The Board of Supervisors this evening [illegible] the Superintendent of the Industrial School [illegible] receive the voluntary surrender of children from their parents, and also from [illegible] in the State [illegible] for [illegible] children in advance. [illegible]

[illegible]

The [illegible] have [illegible] McMahon, who [illegible]

about McMahon was sent to Sacramento yesterday for trial on similar charges there. He appears to have been operating pretty extensively and has succeeded in defrauding a number of parties.

John D. Kennedy, an old and well known citizen, was arrested this evening on a charge of an assault to commit rape.

A negro known as Col. Ross, went into Le Favre's drug store, Washington street, and said he was short of breath. Some medicine was given him, when he fell to the floor and expired, probably from heart disease. He formerly traveled with the Lincoln Guard and was well known among the colored men.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

WATSONVILLE, April 22.—A serious accident occurred at the railroad yesterday afternoon. One of the coaches which was on the point of leaving for town with a full load of passengers upset by a sudden starting of the horses. Geo. White, driver, had his leg broken in two places. Several passengers were slightly bruised and one severely.

VALLEJO, April 22.—A number of men were suspended to-day in the Steam Engineering and Construction Department of the Navy Yard.

Crops on the Montezuma Hills are in the finest possible condition and a heavy yield is expected.

SAN JOSE, April 22.—Yesterday, while driving in a buggy on the Alameda road between this place and Santa Clara, two Misses Bascom were thrown from their buggy and severely bruised, though fortunately no bones were broken.

Patrick Cashin, of Mountain View, had the ends of two of his fingers shot off while out gunning.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE, April 22.—In the Mormon Conference yesterday, Elder Andrews said the only way to stop the growth of the Mormon Church was—capture the Almighty and set the Marshal to guard him—that the world will bow the knee and confess that Jo. Smith was a Prophet of the living God and Brigham Young was his successor, and young Brigham next.

Numerous additional dispatches from District Attorney Bates to release the prisoners. The Deputy Marshal still declines to do so without an official copy of the Supreme Court decision.

Large cash remittances were received to-day from England in part payment on mining property.

Quite a large meeting at the Institute last evening favoring a National Peoples' Convention. A committee was appointed to prepare a memorial address.

Mr. and Mrs. Spear were chosen to represent Salt Lake.

The Valley Route to the Pacific.

THE SNOW PROBLEM.

[From the N. Y. Independent.]

The four different routes that have been surveyed to the Pacific have the following mean elevation above the sea level: 1. The extreme southern or Texas Pacific route, skirting the border of Mexico, has an average altitude of 2,300 feet. 2. The 35th parallel route, 3,600 feet. 3. The middle route, extending 1,771 miles from Omaha to Sacramento, 5,000 feet. 4. The northern route from Lake Superior and St. Paul to Puget Sound, 1,900 feet.

The middle route (now occupied by the Union and Central Pacific road) scales four principal summits, having the following elevations: 6,169 feet, 7,042 feet, 7463 feet, and 8,235 feet. The Northern route has on its main line but one principal summit, and that has an altitude not much exceeding 4,950 feet. Nine hundred continuous miles on the middle route have a greater average elevation than the highest summit on the northern, and 450 continuous miles on the former line are [illegible] highest point on the latter.

The remarkably low altitude on the northern line fully entitles it to the designation it has received of the valley route of the Pacific. From Lake Superior for a distance of 800 miles [illegible] the country is a vast plain, partly timbered but mainly prairie, gradually rising from 1,100 feet elevation above the sea near Lake Superior to 2,700 feet near the Rocky Mountains. This plain has several summits and intermediate depressions, low [illegible] navigable waters of the Mississippi, the Red, the upper Missouri and the Yellowstone and their many tributaries.

Crossing at right angles the valleys of the Mississippi and the Red River of the North, the northern route traverses the rolling prairies of Dakota to the broad and fertile valleys of the Missouri and Yellowstone. The latter it follows nearly the entire length of Montana to the foot of the mountains. Ascending the eastern slope by an almost imperceptible grade and surmounting the single divide by a pass so remarkable that it has long been known as the "gate of the Mountains," the Northern line enters the valley of a branch of the Columbia and follows that noble river to tide water on the Pacific. The leading advantages resulting to the Northern Pacific Railroad from the low altitude of the valley route along which it is building are: 1. A mild climate and a sheltered position. 2. Exemption from deep and drifting snows, and hence, with ordinary precautions, entire freedom from winter obstructions. 3. A productive and verdure covered country flanking the road, resulting in rapid settlement, a large tributary population and a profitable local traffic. 4. An abundance of good water. 5. A saving of many millions in cost of construction, with a proportionate reduction of interest burden. 6. A succession of natural and easy grades which will greatly reduce the cost of operating the road and enable the same motive power to accomplish far greater results both in speed and traffic than are possible on an elevated or mountain route.

The experience of the past winter, the severest since our Territories were settled, and not likely to be repeated for many years, has thoroughly justified the claim that the Northern Pacific road, when completed, will not be at any time obstructed by snow. Authentic reports, official, unofficial and incidental, from surveyors, engineers, United States military and signal officers and settlers representing all important sections of the route, agree that during the past hard winter there has not been a time when, with the precautions usually taken on roads in Northern States, Northern Pacific trains could not have made regular trips.

Chief Engineer Roberts of the Northern Pacific road, who has no superior in his profession in this country, has carefully studied the Western snow problem during the past three years and in a recent report, based on very full data, he sums up his conclusion in this sentence: "With ordinary means [illegible] the most exposed points the Northern Pacific Railroad when completed by the Yellowstone route can unquestionably be kept open for regular traffic its entire length across the continent, even during winters as severe as the present should they occur." He further [illegible] adding a mass of testimony from Montana.

These very favorable reports bring a winter of unprecedented severity over the most elevated and mountainous portion of the line, where obstructions from snow would occur if anywhere. [illegible] that the [illegible] the [illegible] section (150 miles), every part of which is at least 1,000 feet higher than the highest summit on the North [illegible] and most of which is 500 to 1,000 feet higher than the [illegible] of equal length on the Northern [illegible] becomes perfectly safe [illegible] for the latter as complete exemption from winter blockades as is enjoyed by railroads in New York and New England.

Intelligent judges believe that the Union Pacific Company ought to experience will be able hereafter to prevent any serious blockade on their line. Whether this prove true or not, it cannot be considered settled that the Northern Pacific road, following as it will the channel way of the great rivers of the continent, traversing the mild verdure belt and running at an elevation of [illegible] 4,000 feet lower than its neighbor, will from the day of its completion furnish a reliable means of transit between the Atlantic and the Pacific. It is particularly and vastly important that this fact be known and emphasized now that we have among us an important embassy from Japan, whose report on the efficiency of our trans-continental thoroughfares will do much to hasten or retard the increase of our direct trade with the Orient.

The past year's business on the Union and Central line, with its promise of rapid increase, establishes beyond doubt the success of the first trans-continental road, but it renders equally certain the profitableness of the Northern Pacific, which has radical advantages with an ample field and future of its own. The two lines are so far apart as not to interfere with each other. As is the case with the present Pacific road, the bulk of the earnings of each will doubtless come from local traffic, while the Asiatic and through carrying trade of both will be increased to an enormous volume by their joint efforts to turn the current of the world's commerce across the American continent, and by their joint demonstration that the trans-continental route is equal to all commercial needs.

All Over Oregon and Washington

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: Mrs. Victor's new book is very properly entitled "All Over Oregon and Washington." As the title implies, the book is not hearsay but the result of actual observation and experience. The authoress has summered and wintered upon the soil, and knows whereof she speaks. She has few equals as an observer of nature—particularly for practical purposes. Everything about the topography of the country, its climate and physical resources, is faithfully and fairly set forth in this volume. It contains an accurate and interesting compendium of the early history and settlement of Oregon, which of itself ought to insure a ready sale and general circulation among Oregonians. Its complete and trustworthy description of the country and its ample and varied resources would make it a very effective aid in any scheme of promoting emigration to this country. The real estate and business interests of Oregon can well afford to purchase this book and distribute it in the East and Europe. We understand that it is the purpose of the authoress, as soon as the present limited edition is sold, to take the proceeds and publish a large and cheap one in New York.

During the past five years Mrs. Victor has done much to call public attention to the advantages of this Northwest coast, and on that account as well as for the merits of her present publication she deserves to be liberally patronized by the public.

PORTLAND, April 22, 1872.

The National Republican truly says:

The two leading Democratic organs in New York, the Tribune and the World, take pretty much the same view of the Republican victory in Connecticut. The Tribune says the victory is due to two or three thousand voters who came home to vote, while the World lays the defeat of Mr. Hubbard to the Liberal Republicans. These two Democratic organs are evidently disgusted, which is not to be wondered at, considering that Governor Jewell triumphed in spite of the efforts of both of them.

SPEEDY AND REMARKABLE CURES.

Still Another Testimonial from a Prominent Citizen of Greenville, Washington County.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—I WISH TO STATE THAT for nine years I was a great sufferer with Nasal Catarrh, Throat and Lung Disease, bad discharges from my Head, Cough, great difficulty of breathing, pains through my chest and Dyspepsia, was constantly getting weaker and losing flesh. No treatment seemed to relieve me. Hearing of Doctor Aborn's great success, I decided to try his skill in my case. On the 23d of January last I visited Portland and placed myself under his treatment, and found immediate relief of my pain in the breast, and the difficulty of breathing was also relieved at once, and I have continued to improve from day to day until now I feel quite well. I can breathe freely through my nostrils, which were almost entirely closed. My lungs are healing rapidly. I can now breathe quite clear and easy. I have gained about eleven pounds. My general health has been so much improved that I look and feel like a different man. I have been able to plough and do other work on my farm during the last three or four weeks without experiencing any difficulty. I am satisfied that the doctor's mode of treatment is based upon scientific principles, and calculated to cure these diseases after the ordinary plans of treatment have failed.

Deafness of Ten Years' Standing Cured in a Few Days by Dr. Aborn.

I wish to state that for ten years I was deaf in my left Ear, and by submitting myself to Dr. Aborn's treatment for a few days, I have had my hearing restored so that now I can hear the ticking of a watch quite a distance from my head. His treatment gave me no pain whatever. I reside near Springville.

Something About Serfs

The Democratic organ for want of political matters of [illegible] in the political campaign [illegible] and [illegible] the best way about [illegible] matters that has nothing to do with [illegible]

[illegible] society [illegible] its railroads [illegible] its own convenience [illegible] be its master [illegible] The man who has the power to levy any tribute he may choose on the labor of a people is the practical master of that people. Give any man the power to say how much he will tax the product of your toil before it shall reach a market and are you not [illegible] a serf?

This is all very said. But no one in Oregon had heard that society here was building railroads. Such railroads as we have were built without the cost of a dollar to the people of Oregon. By reason of their construction the lands belonging to the people have doubled or quadrupled in value and all business has been stimulated to greatly increased activity. No man has now the power more than at any former time to say how much he will tax the product of your toil before it shall reach a market. The old methods of transportation are still open. Nobody can monopolize them. If there be any who think railroad charges are too high, there still are the rivers and there are the common roads which were the sole dependence before railroads were built. And as a matter of fact one company on the Wallamet and one company on the Columbia have always possessed and always exercised the power to say how much they would tax the product of your labor before it could reach a market. Since railroads were built the average charges have been considerably less. We say these things mainly for the benefit of our neighbor who doesn't know much about Oregon, and who seems to think that until now the Legislature has always regulated rates of transportation. The truth is that according to the organ's definition we have always been "serfs" but our "serfdom" is now less oppressive than it was before the railroad era commenced because we can now travel cheaper and faster and get our freight carried at lower average rates and with greater celerity and certainty, than at any former time.

Chagrin and Disappointment

The New York World mourns over the result of the election in Connecticut. It thus proceeds its plaint:

> It is always cheap and easy to be wise after the event, and we suppose everybody will now concede that the Democratic canvass in Connecticut proceeded on a miscalculation. It was shaped with reference to the Liberal Republican vote and the event shows that it leaned upon a broken reed. The Republican party of Connecticut was never more thoroughly united than in the contest which has just ended. The Democratic party counted on outside support which it did not receive. Its platform was a word for word copy of the Missouri platform on which Governor Brown was elected in 1870, and was readopted in the hope of winning the Liberal Republicans to support Mr Hubbard. But, in point of fact the unanimous Republican vote was given to Jewell. Some Democratic voters were alienated and stayed at home, and there was no compensating advantage in drawing liberal votes from the other side. It is evident now that the Democratic party would have made a better show if it had offered no concessions.

This is is very mournful. It is a bitter confession that the "Liberal Republicans" so-called have no existence as a party or body of men. It is, further a reproach to the soured politicians who lately quit the Republican party and persuaded the Democracy that they had a party behind them whose cooperation and alliance could be obtained by an abandonment by the Democracy of their "time-honored principles." The time-honored principles were abandoned, but the Democracy got no Republican votes. The reason is not far to seek. The Republican masses care nothing for the personal grievances of disappointed politicians. The New York Herald states the case exactly when it says "This Liberal anti Grant Republican party makes a great noise, but it is a small concern. As far as developed its strength is confined to disappointed office-seekers and intriguers for the White House who have become thoroughly disgusted with the tedious processes and discouraging obstacles of your regular party conventions. These fellows had no votes to give the Democracy in Connecticut; hence the State went Republican and the World mourns."

Facts from the Census

At length the results of the Tenth Census are being brought into shape and laid before the country. Our total population in 1870 38,555,983, against 31,443,321 in 1860 and 22,191,876 in 1850. During the decade from 1850 to 1860 the increase was 8,251,445 or over 35 per cent, during the decade lately closed the increase was 7 112,662, or over 22 per cent. At the same rate of increase as in the previous decade we would have had an addition to our population of 10 995 162 raising it to 42,438 483. It would seem then that our loss from the war was nearly four millions. The native born population in 1870 was 32 989 437 having increased 30 per cent from 1850 to 1860 and only 21 per cent from 1860 to 1870. The foreign born population in 1870 was 5 566 546, having increased 34 per cent from 1860 to 1870 and 84 per cent from 1850 to 1860. The term native-born includes children of naturalized foreigners born on the soil.

In 1870 the value of our personal and real estate amounted to $30 068 518,508 of which $545 083 67 was in the Territories. The valuation of 1860 was $16 159 616 069. The valuation in 1850 was $7 135 780 228. The increase of our valuation from 1850 to 1860 was 126 per cent or nearly three and a half times the rate of increase of the population from 1860 to 1870 it increased 86 per cent or nearly four times as fast as the population. It appears then that our wealth and resources are multiplying much faster than our population and that consequently we are a much more wealthy people than we were before. Taxation for other than national purposes increased from $94 [illegible] 140 in 1860 to $281,180 312 in 1870 an increment of about 200 per cent and about half the rate of increase of our personal and real estate. Our public burdens then, have not advanced in proportion to our resources.

The New York World says of the Cincinnati Conference that "the movement was born of despair of defeating Grant in the regular party convention," and further that "its promoters virtually confess they are a hopeless minority inside the regular Republican organization and they are too powerless to make even a respectable bolt at Philadelphia." Gentle reminders like these the Pittsburgh [illegible] think will help wonderfully to bring the Democrats and soreheaded wirepullers into a cordial community of feeling and action.

A few days ago Mr Corbett presented in the Senate a petition of certain citizens of Oregon praying that any law repealing the duties upon tea and coffee may not take effect until at least ninety days after the enactment.

American Commerce

It is affirmed by the New York Tribune that all questions of cost of building ships and all debate about the methods of reviving the commerce of the United States would be settled by an act of Congress making it more profitable to foreign importers to ship their goods in American bottoms than in European. The Pittsburg Gazette elaborates this idea. It says that in 1816 subsequent to the devastating war which had just closed with England, Congress and the country found an exactly similar condition of affairs to the present one. What was done? for it is well known that our commerce did not long remain depressed. Have Congressmen look into history and hunted up the remedy for the present disease? We all know that the troubles existed at that time worse than at the present. The war of 1812-1815 had been principally a war of ships, a war on commerce and our trading merchant and coasting vessels had been wholly driven from the high seas and inland harbors and we know that no sooner had the struggle ended than the remedy was applied and commerce sprang into new life and activity.

Congress passed an act amendatory of the Tariff act placing higher duties upon importations brought by foreign ships than upon those floated in home built vessels. This worked like very magic: a demand sprang up instantaneously for American ships; every ship yard throughout the land was kept busy night and day and in the space of two years, we were everywhere recognized as the ruling maritime power. Why can this not now be done, it is simple and it is just? We recognize the justice of protecting home labor and home enterprise, why not apply it to our commercial marine? England cannot complain of us, for it was from her that we received our first lesson in this regard. A navigation law would force a discrimination in favor of American vessels, as British laws have often forced it in favor of British vessels. The Tribune is sure that this would be the speediest easiest cheapest and least troublesome way of attaining the result aimed at.

Northern Pacific Railroad

The Helena (Montana) Herald has information from the East relative to the route of the North Pacific Railroad through Montana Territory. The general statement is made that the road will take the direction of the Yellowstone, Jefferson, Deer Lodge and Hell Gate rivers, crossing the Yellowstone Range by the Bozeman Pass, the Main Rocky Range by the Deer Lodge Pass and threading the valley route of the several streams consecutively named.

This will carry the railroad eighty or one hundred miles south of Helena. But the Herald argues that Helena will maintain its supremacy as the first town in the Territory. "Denver," it says, "with less wealth and no more people than this city, did not go down to the Kansas Pacific, nor did Salt Lake City budge an inch toward the Union and Central Pacific lines. On the contrary Denver and Salt Lake forced the railroads to their very doors, and they have them to-day, and other roads are building to and radiating from them. Such is certainly to be the destined experience of Helena."

Two years ago the municipal rights of Portland were traded off in connection with the seventy five thousand dollar Locks steal. The police affairs of the city were turned over to the Democracy as part of the consideration for passing the bill. The parties who did this thing want another Legislature that will accommodate them further.

Eastern papers are engaged in a controversy as to whether Mr Morse was really the inventor of the electric telegraph. He did not claim to be the discoverer of the principles of the telegraph, but to be the first to adapt already discovered principles to the work of telegraphing. Even this claim has been bitterly contested.

Dispatches this morning say that Attorney General Williams has started for Oregon. He will probably arrive within twelve days. The service he will render in the campaign will be most efficient and valuable.

The German Press

The Illinois Staats Zeitung takes a survey of such principles as are likely to be adopted by the reactionists in building their sham platform:

> The first is the personal dislike of Grant—a curious principle, indeed; the second the civil service reform, which cannot be made a genuine party question as both parties will continue to recommend it in theory, but in practice will look out for themselves as the first and most urgent necessity. On questions of resumption of specie payments, reduction of taxes, etc all parties fully agree. But there is one item—somewhat concealed amid the rhapsody of the reactionary programme, but easily discovered by an expert eye—which is the contrast between State rights and the National Union which is the very thing which caused our civil war.
> All the programmes of the Liberals are animated by the thought—which was the main idea of the Democratic party—that the unity of the Union must be crumbled, and the power independency, and rights of the single State be supported and strengthened. In such a battle however we shall stand faithfully to the old banner—in the cause of the Union—not because we believe the Republican party to be free of errors and faults but in consequence of our firm faith and conviction in that National Union as the first condition for the genuine development of our civil rights and true civilization.

The Anzeiger des Westens while expounding the articles of different journals on the above subject has the following:

> We regret that the leaders of the Liberal Republican wing stuck far too long to a suicidal policy and that to this very hour the Democrats received no genuine authoritative invitation, or such as would imply that it had been issued with the approval of the Liberal Republican leaders or of the majority of the members of the new party.
> It seems as if the pessimists among the Democrats prevent the issuing of such an invitation because it would finish their own pet—the opossum. The Liberal Republicans hesitate for reason of a narrow heartedness which has become their second nature of which we so frequently complained. Another reason is their secret hope (which lurks in the background of all their movements) that Grant will be thrown overboard by the regulars and that in such a case they the Liberals may return to their regular quarters having duly guarded their immaculateness from coming into contact with the Democrats.
> From such strategical moves may result after all once more the perfect isolation of the Democracy. If in that case the Democracy only does what it reasonably should, then Liberal Republicans who are after a good administration and not after some offices for themselves will have individually the chance to effect that purpose which their leaders have neglected. Thus can we triumph after all and attain a victory which might even now be thoroughly organized if the Liberal Republican leaders would only abandon all their prejudices.

The Kalama Beacon says: "On Monday evening, at the Big Cut beyond the 25 mile extension, a party of Chinese workmen set a blast and retired to their camp 250 yards distant and when the explosion took place a piece of rock weighing fifteen pounds was thrown into the tent striking a Chinaman on the leg, causing a wound so bad as to make amputation necessary which was performed by Dr Dunlavy."

Wells Fargo & Co shipped from here during the past week twelve bars of bullion valued at $30 1[illegible]4 48."

The earliest indication that we have of any man's declining prosperity is a resort to unworthy means to recruit his failing fortunes. True as this is of individuals it is equally so of journalism and any member of the press who will traffic the power which fairly belongs to this time honored institution deserves to be regarded as an infidel to the profession he has thus disgraced even though his very existence was in the scale.

This peddling of the power that rightfully belongs to all respectable journals has recently had an illustration in the attempt made by a notorious weekly of New York to enforce payment from the Equitable Life Assurance Society for the suppression of certain statements that it was asserted would be made unless this company were prepared to have them withheld from publication.

Can anything more venal be imagined and how desperate must the proprietors of the paper have been in their efforts to sustain themselves when they contemplated an attack which in its impossibility of success any sensible man might have predicted would rather have recoiled upon themselves.

Notoriously unpopular except among a class of readers to whom sensationalism is alone attractive that set of editors will stamp forever the reputation of the journal [illegible] interest upon which alone it lives. There should be some foundation for an attack upon any libellous statement based merely upon the imagination of the writers can have no hold upon any portion of the community still that such is the character of the articles referred to in regard to the Equitable is fully proved by the report which appears in our columns to day.

No one can deny the high standing of these gentlemen who have signed their names to the report or doubt the purity of the motives which have induced them to investigate the affairs of the Equitable Society.

The result has been as satisfactory to the general insurance interest as to the company itself. It completely disproves every allegation and represents the Equitable as fully entitled to a continuance of that confidence which has made it what it is—one of the leading and safest life insurance companies in the world.

Many of our readers have doubtless heard of the famous traveling stones of Australia. Similar curiosities have recently been found in Nevada which are described as being almost perfectly round the majority of them as large as a walnut and of irony nature. When distributed about upon the floor table or other level surface within two or three feet of each other they immediately began traveling toward a common center and then huddled in a bunch like a lot of eggs in a nest. A single stone removed to the distance of three and a half feet being released at once started off with wonderful and somewhat comical celerity to join its fellows; taken away four or five feet, it remained motionless. They are found in a region that is comparatively level and it is nothing but bare rock. Through this barren region are little basins from a foot to a rod in diameter and it is in these that the rolling stones are found. They are from the size of a pea to five or six inches in diameter. The cause of these stones rolling together is doubtless to be found in the material of which they are composed which appears to be lodestone or magnetic iron ore. "Rolling stones gather no moss."—Scientific American.

The New York World complains that while the Democratic platform in Connecticut "was a word for word copy of the Missouri platform on which Gov Brown was elected in 1870, and was readopted in the hope of winning the Liberal Republicans to support Mr Hubbard there was no compensating advantage. No votes were drawn from the Liberal side while many Democrats remained at home and did not vote at all." The World does not seem to understand that there are no Liberals to speak of anywhere outside of the Tribune office and the Senate. This is the great blunder it made.

Still Another Remarkable Cure

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 10 1871

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO—For two years I was afflicted with Rheumatism and tried all the known remedies but experienced nothing more than a temporary relief, the disease always returning. Some months since I concluded to take your Unk Weed Remedy and the result was a speedy and Permanent Cure the Rheumatism being entirely eradicated from the system. The UNK is also a Tonic of the very highest order. It increases the appetite, and invigorates the body. I cheerfully bear testimony to its good effect upon me, and feel sure that it will do all you claim for it.

Very truly yours
J W TRIPP

TUESDAY MORNING APRIL 9, 1872

CITY.

STEPHENS ADDITION—It would be a matter of surprise to many on this side of the river to know the amount of improvement already made and in progress in this addition. Recently just we took a flying visit in that direction and to our astonishment found quite a large and thriving little community congregated where but a short time ago "Nature reigned, as bards have expressed it" Some twelve or fifteen neat little cottage residences were scattered around and a number in progress of construction. A handsome church of the Scandinavian Methodists lifts its modest spire towards heaven, and the vigorous sound of the sledge and anvil can be heard ringing through the streets. Order thrift and enterprise characterize the rapid growth of this suburban hamlet. Appearances indicate that its present population and improvements will be more than double the coming summer

CHINESE TILE—The Portland Gas Company have at their wharf a large number of Chinese tile. These tiles are made of a very finely grained clay and burned until the elements have no disintegrating effect on them. The tile is almost as indestructible as marble or flag stone. The size is very convenient, being sixteen inches square and nearly two inches thick. This kind of tile was imported from China purely as an experiment as a paving of that description has ever been used here. The only particular advantage gained by their use over the ordinary clay brick is that the weather has but little effect on them and a walk can be laid more handsome and uniform. There is not much difference in the price so that they may come into general use eventually

REV. A. L. LINDSLEY D D—We are sorry to learn that this distinguished preacher and popular lecturer was so unwell as to be unable to officiate on Sunday. A severe but not dangerous affection of the throat is we understand the cause of his illness. We can assure the Doctor of our hearty sympathy and that of the intelligent public of the city with him in his sickness, accompanied with the sincere wish for his speedy recovery and a long life of eminent usefulness. Such men as Doctor Lindsley irrespective of any speculative opinions on theology forms of worship and [illegible] in church government, are a blessing to our city and an honor to our State

DOWN THE RIVER.—The fisheries along the river are beginning to do a lively business. The [illegible] of one of the large fishing establishments estimates that there will be twice as many men employed in the business this year as there were last year

Farmers along the river bottoms hang back in their Spring work, expecting that the river will swamp everything during the next June freshet

The two men arrested at St. Helens for cutting [illegible] on Government land, of whom mention was made in Saturday's paper, were released on their own recognizance, there appearing no strong probability of their guilt

ALASKAN CURIOSITIES—On the last voyage of the [illegible] Talyour Captain Sherbourne brought from Sitka some specimens of agates and crystals, which he believes to be diamonds, which were found by him in Alaska. He intends taking them with him to San Francisco for testing and testing. He has also a specimen of [illegible] Alaska cedar which was found on the beach near Unga and he says there is any quantity of it on the beach at that place. The [illegible] he has he intends taking to Woodward's Gardens, San Francisco

THE NEW LINE—Beyond the residence of Jas B. Stephens, Esq, a large gang of Chinamen are engaged in grading for the proposed new line of road. By a curve in the bank of the lagoon a deep gulch requires to be filled, and a deep cut just beyond will be necessary in order to conform with the established grade. Ties and rails will soon be distributed along the line at the present [illegible] with which their work is progressing

OUR NEW CLUBS—It is rumored that some of the members of the old Pioneer Base Ball Club are organizing a nine for this season to play under the old name. A club to be known as the "Metals" has also been organized. These clubs are composed of an active, athletic class of young gentlemen, so that a good report from them may be anticipated this summer. Other clubs throughout the State will have to look well to their laurels

NO ATTEMPT—Until the weather becomes more settled, no attempt will be made to recover the machinery of the tugboat Resolute. The diving armor which was worn by the late unfortunate [illegible] McCarroll in his struggles while under water, has been repaired and will be used by the next person diving. We have been informed that Mr. Lewis, the engineer of the boat, will make the descent

FAILED BURGLARS—Two burglars attempted to effect an entrance to a dwelling house on Sixth, between Alder and Washington streets on last [illegible] day night about 12 o'clock. The enterprise was foiled by a timely discovery of the robbers. They hastily decamped, and narrowly escaped capture by private watchman H J Twomey, who was very promptly at hand as soon as the alarm was given

DELINQUENTS—To wise men, a word generally is sufficient, so it would not be amiss for all tax payers to remember that after four o'clock this afternoon the city taxes remaining unpaid become delinquent. To prevent any unpleasant trouble, or a visit from the Chief of Police, those who have not yet paid would do well to take advantage of what little time remains

CUT DOWN—The flag staff which so long stood near the old wooden building, formerly occupied by the railroad and steamship companies' office on Front street, was cut down yesterday. It will be [illegible] d at the new office below the Gas Works and employed as formerly to hoist the steamship flag when a vessel is in port

SENTENCED—The two siwashes who indulged in a little round, on Saturday night, with a knife and club, were arraigned before Judge Denny [illegible] Monday morning. After an examination of the case he sentenced each to the county jail for [illegible] ty five days

FROM THE EAST—Letters have been lately received from Dr Loryea in which it was stated that he would start from New York for Portland on the 18th inst. At the date of the letters he and [illegible] had just returned from an extended Southern tour.

LOG CAUGHT—The ferryboat at the foot of Stark street was detained some time yesterday in consequence of an old tree trunk catching on the [illegible] After some delay the log was loosened and the boat resumed her regular trips

TEMPERANCE CONCERT—A concert, we learn is in course of preparation in East Portland. It will be given under the auspices of the Good Templar Order, and will probably come off the first week of next month

ARRESTED—A. J Moses was arrested last evening on a warrant issued out of the North Portland Precinct Justice's Court on a charge of [illegible]. The complaint was made by the Prosecuting Attorney

SOCIABLE—The postponed sociable of Multnomah Lodge which was to have taken place last Friday evening will be held in their hall this evening at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited. Admission free

INDISPOSITION—In consequence of severe indisposition Rev A L Lindsley pastor of the First Presbyterian Church was unable to officiate on last Sabbath

SOON COMPLETED—The new hotel of Mr Holladay in East Portland will soon be finished and ready for furnishing. Plastering has been nearly completed

HOSE CARRIAGE—The hose carriage of Columbian Engine Co No 3 has received a fresh coat of paint. It looks as clear and trim as when new

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS—Under "New To-day" will be found several new advertisements to which the reader's attention is called

U S CIRCUIT COURT—This Court met yesterday morning at the usual hour and immediately adjourned to Monday next April 15th

HALSEY'S NEW HOTEL

This handsome hotel built by W L Halsey, Vice President of the Oregon and California Railroad Company, is rapidly approaching a state of completion, and will shortly be ready for furnishing. Since the first pile was driven for its foundation this building has been the subject of innumerable paragraphs. The public have been kept well "posted" as to its progress towards the last touch of the brush and stroke of hammer. But as a minute and correct description of the building has not been attempted by any of our cotemporaries, we will give the reader a general but accurate outline of this hotel the dimensions apportionment and distribution of its apartments

The hotel is built of wood throughout; is three stories in height, with a Mansard roof. The building has 100 feet front on Front Street and 100 feet front on F Street. It extends back from Front Street 42 feet, and from F Street, 72x42 feet

The first story is 16 feet high in the clear the second, 11 feet third 10 feet at the attic in the Mansard roof, 11 feet

First story will be divided into three store rooms, each 22x40 feet an office, bar room dining room breakfast room, kitchen, baggage room &c

Second story will consist of a large, elegantly furnished parlor, 22½x21¼ feet, one bed room, 17¾x14¾, two rooms, 17x11¼ three rooms 9x17¾, two rooms, 13¼x17¾ two rooms, 10¼x17¾, six rooms, 9x14 three rooms 9x17¾ five rooms, 14x11, two rooms 9½x12 three rooms 9¾x10. Two large airy halls, 8 feet wide, extend through this story, intersecting each other at right angles near the south eastern corner. Attached to the rear of this story, are two bath rooms for the accommodation of ladies

The third story contains five bed rooms 9x17¾ feet two 11¼x17¾ two rooms, 13¼x17¾, two rooms, 10¾x17¾ one room 11¼x17¾ six rooms, 9x14, five rooms 11x10 one room 9¾x9¾. Two halls, also 8 feet wide, like those in the second story, give light and ventilation to this portion of the hotel

The fourth story, or attic, is divided in exactly the same manner as the last described story; contains the same number of rooms, with similar dimensions, general arrangement, hall, &c

Throughout, this hotel will be hard finished, and furnished in a corresponding style. Every appliance of convenience or elegance will be added, and nothing which may contribute to the physical comfort of the transient or permanent guests will be spared. An abundance of good wholesome water will be furnished the apartments, and all the principal rooms will be illuminated with gas

The building is constructed on piles but the intention is to have all the distance between the ground and the lower story filled with earth during this season. A side track has been laid from the main track to within a few rods of the hotel and the work of leveling the foundation up will be commenced in a few days. When completed and furnished in the proposed style this will be one of the finest hotels the city affords. It will command a very favorable locality to transient travel—the cars running within a few yards of the door, and steamships landing and departing within a stone's cast

The original plans and specifications were drawn up by Messrs Piper and Burton. Some alterations have subsequently been made to the first plan, but are so slight as to scarcely merit mention in the general description of the building

ADJOURNED SCHOOL MEETING

An adjourned meeting of the legal voters of School District No 1, was held last evening at the Central School house

Owing to the disagreeable night a rather sparce attendance was the result

The house was called to order by Director J B Giltner

The Auditing Committee presented their report of the reports of the School Clerk for the last current year and of the Directors for the same period. They reported that, after an examination of the two reports everything was found satisfactory

The reports were accepted and placed on file

At the request of Mr Eliot Mr Atkins n the School Superintendent made some remarks in relation to the present condition of the schools

Messrs Ladd and Dennison also made some extended remarks

M F Mulkey, Esq moved that the school meeting declare a tax of five mills on the county assessment to be applied toward the support of the public schools and for the purchase of blocks and the erection of school buildings

This motion provoked a very lengthy discussion in which Messrs Mulkey Ladd Dennison Hardenburg Morrill Talbot Failing and others participated

After some debate Mr Ladd moved to amend Mr Mulkey's motion by inserting four instead of five mills

To Mr Ladd's amendment Mr Schuyler proposed to still further amend by making the tax three and a half mills

At length the motion was put and carried in favor of Mr Schuyler's amendment

Mr Ladd then moved that the present Board of Directors be instructed to petition the Legislature at its next session, for authority to enable the city to contract an indebtedness of a sum not to exceed $100 000 by issuing bonds drawing a rate of interest not to exceed 8 per cent per annum. This fund thus created was to be judiciously expended in the maintenance of the Public Schools and for the purchase of land and the erection of buildings suitable for school purposes

Mr Ladd's motion was warmly discussed but was passed over finally

Mr Mulkey then moved to levy an additional tax of one and a half mills on the county assessment which was to create a Building Fund. Motion carried

Mr J D Holman moved that the colored children of the city be declared able and [illegible] and that he [illegible] ildren of that [illegible] be entitled to attendance at the other public schools. This motion was carried without dissenting voice

Mr [illegible] moved that the Directors be requested to make ample provision for the teaching of music in the schools as there appeared to be an apparent want in that department. Motion was unanimously carried

Mr Mulkey moved that all school warrants be allowed to draw interest at one per cent per month until paid after presentation of the same. Carried

On motion the meeting adjourned

THE FIRST OREGON COINS

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I wish to make a correction in regard to the first coinage of money in Oregon. In your paper under date of March 1 h was an extract from a speech delivered by Judge Curry in which he states that the dies were made by Hamilton Campbell and the press and rolling mill by W H Rector. This statement is correct in regard to the press rolling and dies for the $5 piece. Victor M Wallace then a resident of Oregon City made the press rolling mill and dies for the $10 piece [illegible] this rec [illegible] the $5 piece was [illegible] Mr Price then [illegible] Oregon City forged the rolls Victor M Wallace turned them on a turning lathe which was hauled across the plains in 1846 I suppose it was the only lathe of the kind then in Oregon. This money was coined for the Company by W H Rector and Victor M Wallace

Another thing of which I must speak is the printing of the Free Press at Oregon City. As I write there are two copies of the paper lying before me one bearing the date of April 8 1848—No [illegible]—and the other Aug 19 1848 No 0 Vol 1. These copies were preserved that we might see something of the difficulties under which the early settlers labored. To look at this little paper the Free Press with two [illegible] forming a [illegible] which [illegible] how crude the implements were with which its editor and proprietor had to work. Although the paper was small its weekly issue was [illegible] sed as anxiously for by our parents as we now wait for the arrival of our Magazines or papers [illegible]. It also shows the enterprise of its editor and proprietor, to whom great credit is due

I will give you a correct copy of an item which appears in the Free Press of April 8 1848

OUR PRESS. This most important means of our weekly communication with the public—our press—is entirely of Oregon manufacture. Mr Victor M Wallace of this city is the ingenious machinist who constructed it and he is entitled to great credit for the excellence of his work and the admirable manner in which it operates. Although it is made of wood Mr W thinks it will be able to tell the truth quite as well as an iron one

SIDE TRACK—The side track reaching from the main track below the Bone Yard has been laid opposite Halsey's hotel. Freight cars already receive freight at that point instead of at the corner of Stark and Fourth streets. Passenger cars will stop at that point in a few days. Theodore W Dwight LL D Professor of Municipal Law Columbia College New York this Committee have made the following

Report:

NEW YORK March 5th 1872

In the month of January 1871 the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States were informed by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York that Henry S Gove who had insured his life in said Society about one year previous for the sum of $5 000 had presented certain grave charges against the Directors and management of said Society

Whereupon the President of the Society addressed the following letter to the Superintendent

JANUARY 5th 1871

Hon GEO W MILLER Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York

DEAR SIR. The Counsel of this Society has handed to me a copy of charges with specifications sworn to by a policy holder. As some of these charges and specifications have not the slightest foundation in truth and in other cases are grossly exaggerated and the truth perverted and as I fully believe each charge admits of the fullest and most complete explanation I have felt it my duty to address to you this communication

Conscious that the affairs of this Society have been conducted by the officers with a high integrity of purpose and with a view to the best interests of the policy holders and having nothing to conceal as to the condition of the Society or the manner in which its affairs are conducted I would respectfully request that in the exercise of that authority conferred upon you by law and appointment to your position as Superintendent of the Insurance Department you would institute such investigation into the condition affairs and transactions of the Society as you in your discretion may consider that the presentation of these charges demands

Feeling aggrieved that charges so unfounded should be preferred jealous of the honor of the Society and that of its Officers and Directors I would respectfully solicit that with as little delay as possible you would give your attention to the subject

I am very respectfully your obedient servant
Signed; WILLIAM C ALEXANDER
President

The Superintendent subsequently replied that he would commence an examination of the Company at as early a period as his official duties would permit

Before an examination had been made by the said Superintendent a person professing to be the representative of a newspaper in this city called upon the Officers of the Society and informed them that this newspaper had in its possession for publication a copy of charges against the Society made by Henry S Gove and that he the professed representative of the newspaper was prepared to enter into a negotiation for their suppression. The officers of the Society refused to pay for such suppression and the charges were thereupon published in the newspaper which the person claimed to represent

The Directors of the Society again requested the Superintendent of New York to make the examination without delay. But in consequence of the legislative examination of the Insurance Department of this State the Superintendent was again unable to give it immediate attention. The Directors also requested the Commissioner of the State of Massachusetts to make an additional or concurrent examination which he consented to do and has associated with himself the undersigned to assist him in the investigation

Upon assembling at the offices of the Society the undersigned at once entered upon the investigation of Mr Gove's charges made to the New York Insurance Department and since widely spread before the public in printed form. The Massachusetts Commissioner at the meeting called to make the investigation stated that he caused Mr Gove to be notified in writing of the investigation and had invited him to furnish testimony in support of his charges, and presented the affidavit of personal service of the notice upon him

Mr Gove did not appear or offer any testimony to sustain his allegations

The minutes of the Society and of the several Committees the account books cash books and cheque books of the Society were then laid before the undersigned and carefully examined. The Officers of the Society and such other persons as the undersigned desired were examined under oath and each specific charge was carefully and exhaustively inquired into and the undersigned certify that excepting a clerical error in publishing among the list of paid policies a contested claim which error was rectified as soon as discovered the charges and specifications are untrue and malicious. The amount of the policy referred to was returned to the Insurance Departments as a liability in accordance with the rules of the Departments with regard to contested policies which fact corroborates other testimony showing that the error was merely clerical

The undersigned following in their investigation the order in which the charges and specifications are presented find—

1 That the Society possessed the legal power to erect the building which contains the offices of the Society at the corner of Broadway and Cedar streets and the undersigned refer to the opinion of Prof Theodore W Dwight respecting the same

2 They further find that the erection of the building was a wise and judicious measure and is a safe investment yielding an increased annual income of more than five and a half (5½) per cent leaving the Society free from rent for its own offices and [illegible] the value of the offices occupied by the Society is taken into account we are of opinion that it has no money invested to better advantage

3 They further find that in reference to the compensation of the officers both the method of payment and the amount paid as charged are untrue. From the evidence submitted to them the aggregate sum paid for salaries by the Society during the first eleven years of its existence as compared with its income during the same period produces a ratio at least as favorable as that of any life company—for the same years from 1860 to 1870 inclusive organized during the year in which the Equitable was organized or since that time or even prior to that time with the exception of two, the preliminary expenses of those two companies not being taken into account on the same basis because they were organized more than fifteen years previous to 1859

4 They further find that no loan was made on the 9th of September 1869 or at any other time upon New York Central and Hudson River Railroad stock. But they find, on the contrary, that no loan has been made by the Society except upon securities authorized by and in accordance with the law

The charge that the building committee or any of the Directors are or were interested directly or indirectly in the quarry from which the stone for the building was taken or pecuniarily interested in any other contract for the Society was most carefully and minutely examined and the undersigned declare the charge to be [illegible] false and malicious. On the contrary the undersigned find that the erection of the building in all [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

9 In the opinion of the undersigned the Directors so far from having managed the affairs of the Society wastefully or extravagantly, have managed them prudently and successfully and have made no false returns to the Insurance Department

10 The rates of commission paid to agents as charged are untruly stated. No salaries are paid to agents in addition to commissions

11 They find from the testimony given by the Officers and Directors that the establishment of an Agency in Great Britain has not proved a failure that the agent sent there is not inexperienced in the insurance business that he receives no salary but that his commissions are guaranteed for three years to an extent of $10 000 per annum and that the result of his labors in introducing the Society's business there has been satisfactory to the Board of Directors

12 The charge that money has been wastefully spent upon the building is sufficiently answered by our opinion of the investment

13 They further find that the Society does not falsely advertise itself as a mutual company. The necessity of a capital stock arises from the fact that before the organization of the Society laws were enacted in New York requiring all companies organized after such enactments to have a capital stock and to make a deposit of one hundred thousand dollars with the Insurance Department as a guarantee to policy holders. The annual dividends upon this stock are limited to seven per cent. This amount is nearly earned by the investment of the capital and the profits are divided amongst the policy holders; the stock bears no such market price as is charged and as no unlawful gains can be charged thereon the ownership of the stock can only be desirable for the protection of the Company. The provision as to a stock management is not concealed from policy holders but on the contrary the Directors are of opinion that it forms one of the greatest safeguards of the Company

14 In conclusion the undersigned desire to say that they are unable to find an honest motive for the presentation of charges so totally unfounded. This investigation has shown only an honest and efficient management of the Society. The Massachusetts Commissioner, with Professors Theodore W Dwight of Columbia College Law School, and Junius B Wheeler, of the West Point Military Academy will at once proceed to examine the details of the management of the Society from its foundation and Messrs Upton Spaulding Kelly Schwab and Fogg will examine its assets and investments, which the undersigned will report upon as soon as the investigations are concluded. From the wide publicity given to these charges it is thought best to make this report upon them at once. The undersigned desire to express their unqualified approval of the action of the Society in resisting the attempt to extort money from it under color of these charges. And finally the undersigned take great pleasure in bearing their unanimous testimony to the faithful and successful management by the Trustees and Officers of the Society of the great trust reposed in them

Atmospheric Diseases

The air without which no creature could live is the source of diseases of which millions die. At this season, specially the atmosphere is full of the germs of many kinds of sickness. Every globule of the mist and fog which cloud the earth and sky in spring holds in solution its portion of miasmatic poison

The evil effects of this aerial virus can only be certainly averted by increasing the vital activity of the system and securing the full and free exercise of all its natural functions and hence it is that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters the great nerve strengthener regulator and antifebrile is also imperatively required in the Spring months

[illegible] that Dyspepsia assumes its most distressing types and that persons of bilious habit usually suffer most. There is an influence in the air which depresses the spirits as well as the physical energies and [illegible] is absolutely necessary

[illegible] Hostetter's Bitters [illegible] nervous prostration and malarious fever is due to the potency of its tonic alterative and aperient materials and the absolutely pure stimulant with which they are incorporated

It is because the public have been taught by twenty years experience that the article can be implicitly trusted—because it performs uniformly and certainly all that it is advertised to do—that they prefer this sovereign tonic to every other. Hence its immense and ever increasing sales and hence too also the many counterfeits and imitations against which there is no safeguard except the close scrutiny of the purchaser

Ode to Spring

BY [illegible]

el Spring your cum at last hev y u
o poet sez your t n a sittin in Old W ter s
L p—now a n you ashamed f y u se f
[illegible] the [illegible] folks a been buzz n y o
I b n d th nk he be [illegible] ur brest bein so c ld—but that s the way the u
d fellers hev a lon

W ll as I was saying,
Your cum at last with your "Bamy
Breth a blow g rom the N w west
Westconsts t r Neb asky l ap se
Great [illegible] fr [illegible] ban [illegible] eck n

Now your [illegible] wen
Everybody s feel and s [illegible] n l h ngs
Her all t n le [illegible] N w [illegible] at
Our kr tters w l ye [illegible] hate
On the lift n bevin t b steaded by
Thar tales when they gits up a mornings
Look at our bowls wats all reduced
To skeletons a weeping over a troft
A hull troft full of kobs
A hull troft full of bitter reckeleckshuns

Look at them sheps a lion in
The fence corners a waiting f r grass
Yis, and theyve bin a waiting some ov
Them week! And if they wasn t
Puld they d a bin shakin there ox
At you and sad U dun it (That hur
Is from Hamlet, one ov Shakspur's pla s)
As another poit sez—Hirass rifles d makes
The stumak c [illegible] So these shepe will Never open thur i onto grass agin—ns

Now lok at them hogs as has bin
A foller n them ka[illegible] wat hev l in
Stuffed with ha[illegible] Fee em w l ye a creepin
Round as f theyes leched w th corns
Look at the eres will ye—bigger no
Enny cabbitch lefe

See them shotes
A leain on the fence to squele
Lok at them m ty eres a hang ng pendent
Onto such little hogs See a hundrid
Gud shotes rejuced down to a even
Korn basket full!
Yes, that thurs al yer doins U
Tardy loiterin Spring—a hanging bak
As your b n a doin

But now your cum
We feel yure cheerin presens when we
Git round onto the south side ov the barn!
We [illegible] see nens a cacklin when theyve
Laid a eg! We see the horse-radish
A starting up alongside the garding
Fens! The wimmen is a lakin into
The old tea pot after garding seeds
And all these things make me think your cum

Ef so be I ve riled
Ye Spring a showin up ov yer short commons
Just set it down to havin poit s licens.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

MONDAY EVENING, April 22, 1872

Gold in New York, 111¼.

Greenbacks 90c buying and 9 c selling.

The bark Sparkling Dew, with cargo of Wheat will probably be ready to sail to-morrow or on Wednesday at farthest.

Advices are received of two vessels of the iron fleet of this year. On the 20th March the ship Electra was loading 800 rails, fish plates and other material at Newport, Wales, and was about ready to sail for Portland The Navigator was loading 700 tons at Middlesburgh for the same [illegible]

Pig Iron at Pittsburg, at latest advices, was command ing $60 a [illegible] ted price The furnaces all had large orders [illegible]

[illegible] of Eggs continue large and prices are without [illegible] Good Oregon Butter is scarce.

The [illegible] and Pacific Sugar Refineries have entered into a written agreement not to advance the price of [illegible] for the next three months There establish [illegible] of the Bay Sugar Refinery, and the competition is great. Since the reduction of the price of [illegible] Sugar, [illegible] this competition, the in[illegible] of [illegible] has been great, and all the establishments are taxed to their utmost capacity. It is said that they are all losing [illegible]

[illegible] mail advices from San Francisco say that prices of Wool in that city are not yet fully established Buyers from the East do not yet feel authorized to buy at the figures [illegible]. The United States Economist (New York) of [illegible] 29th, has this

Our Woolen capacity as a manufacturing country has run up as high as 7,000 to 8,000 sets of machinery We were well aware that our Woolen interests, within recent years, were making rapid strides in the production of worsted dress goods, shawls, etc., and we knew full well we were consuming enormous quantities of Wool, but we were not aware until now that we were running so many sets of woolen machinery To run all this machinery will require an enormous quantity of Wool Apart from California and Texas the clip in the United States will be no larger this year than last and this will be inadequate for our wants. We must therefore seek for supplies from abroad but prices abroad are fully as high if not higher than here To-day the telegraph carries the news under the deep ocean everywhere, like a shuttle, back and forth. It is the great tell tale of the world To morrow we shall know what transpires in London to-day, and what occurs here will also be known there The markets on both sides of the ocean stand equally in the balance, if anything the scales are lightest on our side, so that Wools that would cost 41½ cents to-day laid down here can be bought here at 40 cents, and most of the [illegible] wools in port [illegible] very soon cause importers to ship to Europe, prices in the Antwerp and London markets [illegible] relatively as high, if not higher than here In fact, negotiations are going on at this moment to this [illegible] the aid of the telegraph. At the last [illegible] sale in Havre the Wools did not sell so well. Prices fell off about 10 per cent. from the highest rates, but perhaps this was owing to condition At all events, the market there has fully recovered from the apparent depression, and at present prices are as high as ever In England the manufacturers hold light stocks throughout, and they are actually hungry for Wool On the Continent the Woolen producers are similarly situated In Europe, as well as here, therefore, the manufacturer must enter the market before the end of April, and no one doubts for a moment but there will be lively times [illegible] the Wool trade everywhere.

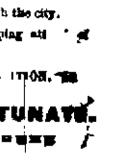
NEW REMEDIES, NEW CURE

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] fully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street corner of Commercial, San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering untold misery, which come from the effects of secret indulgences, or disease absorbed into the system! Look at their pimpled, blotted and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents and guardians attend to those who are suffering from any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] If they are cared for and cured before it be too late, send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years He is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful [illegible] strict inquiry or you may fall into the [illegible] of these [illegible]

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weakness [illegible] the consequences of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by [illegible] medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible] about the loins weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect loss of confidence [illegible] approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath coughs [illegible] night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this disease by any other of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them nor [illegible] obtain immediate relief
